

CCSS [Joint Social Security Centre] instructions for medical certificates

At the request of the Joint Social Security Centre, as of 01.01.2018, the employer shall be required to send not a copy anymore, but the original of the medical certificate submitted by an employee who is absent because of illness. Copies of certificates will no longer be accepted.

It so happens that employees neglect to send this certificate to the Caisse Nationale de Santé (CNS) [National Health Fund], which the Joint Social Security Centre nonetheless needs so as to be able to reimburse the employer for the salary costs incurred for the employee who is unable to work.

Whence the importance of reminding employees of their obligations if they are absent because of illness, not only to the company, but also to the CNS.

The information published in this article is valid only on the date of publication of said article. As social legislation is frequently amended, please contact us concerning any question or intended use based on this article or a previously published article.

Pursuant to Article 2, §2 of the Act of 10 August 1991, as the Legal Department of SECUREX Luxembourg SA is not authorised to practice law, it shall limit its action at all times to disseminating information and documentation.

Such documentation and information thus provided under the legal subscription always constitute typical examples or summaries, are of indicative value, and lay no claim to being exhaustive. The addressee is solely responsible for the use and interpretation of the information or documentation referred to in this article, advice or acts he deduces as well as the results he obtains from them.